Champion Challenge History

Champion Challenge, an annual activity of the U.S. National Teams Program, is now in its seventh year. All of the games have been played at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex. Over the years, the U.S. women's national team has compiled a record of 16-1, including 16 straight wins since a 14-9 loss to Northwestern in the inaugural event in 2006. The U.S. Women's Developmental team, which rolled into one unified national team after the 2010 event, went 8-3-2 over the years in the event. This marks the fourth time that the men's national team has participated, compiling a 3-1 record from 2008-2011. Last year, the men defeated Notre Dame 12-7.

Several of the college teams participating this weekend have past experience at this event. Maryland, returning this year for a third time, fell to the U.S. women's national team 16-4 and 12-5 at last year's event. Northwestern is making their first appearance since 2007, while this year marks the first appearance for the Denver men, Jacksonville men, Syracuse women and the English women's national team.

Streaking toward a Record

The U.S. women's U19 team defeated Australia 14-11 last summer in Hannover, Germany to win the 2011 Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) World Championship. The victory extended the U.S. streak to five straight field lacrosse world championships, dating back to 2007, with the all-time longest U.S. gold medal streak at nine (1996-2003). The U.S. men's U19 team last won a championship in 2008 and will defend its title this summer in Turku, Finland. The U.S. women's senior team won the World Cup in the Czech Republic in 2009, and the U.S. men's senior team reclaimed the world title in England in 2010.

Rocky Mountain Repeat?

In December, US Lacrosse named Richie Meade head coach of the 2014 U.S. men's senior team. Meade will lead Team USA in its title defense at the 2014 FIL World Championship, hosted by US Lacrosse and held in Denver, Colo., July 10-19, 2014. Meade, a former national coach of the year (2004) who compiled a record of 162-120 (.585) record in his 21 years at Navy and the University of Baltimore, becomes the 12th head coach in the history of the U.S. men's senior team program.

New Faces

With many men's Team USA players active this weekend in National Lacrosse League games or retired from active competition, only four of the players that helped Team USA win the 2010 gold medal are playing this weekend, but most of the players have played for Team USA in the past. Many of these players will be in contention for a spot on the 2014 U.S. team - a year when US Lacrosse will host the FIL World Championship in Denver. Back from the world champion team are midfielders Matt Striebel, Stephen Peyser, Max Seibald and attackman Mike Leveille. Three other 2010 team members – Kevin Cassese, Brian Dougherty and Shawn Nadelen – will coach the team this weekend as new Team USA head coach Richie Meade looks on and begins his evaluation process for the 2014 team. Seven of the other U.S. men's team players competed for the team this past fall in the Stars & Stripes event, when the U.S. team defeated Duke 21-9. Among the biggest performances that weekend was a three-goal, two-assist effort from Kevin Leveille.

Familiar Faces

Representing the U.S. women's team are six Wildcats and four Terps. Northwestern players include Sarah Albrecht '06, Katrina Dowd '10, Lindsey Munday '06, Shannon Smith '12, Danielle Spencer '10 and Taylor Thornton '13. The Maryland players are Caitlyn McFadden '10, Brittany Poist '11, Katie Schwarzmann '13 and Acacia Walker '05. Current college players will suit up for Team USA and play against their college teammates.

Local Love

Several Team USA members on both the men's and women's sides bring Sunshine State ties to the event. Men's team veterans Casey Powell (Boca Raton/St. Andrew's School), Doug Shanahan (Ft. Lauderdale/Pine Crest HS) and Chazz Woodson (Miami/Ransom Everglades HS) all reside and coach high school teams in Florida; while on the women's side, Erica LaGrow and Caitlyn McFadden both serve as assistant coaches of the University of Florida women's team. Youth teams with players representing each of the three US Lacrosse chapters in Florida (Gulf Coast, Orlando and South Florida) will participate in a mini tournament on Sunday and attend Saturday's national team player clinics.

Among participating college teams with Florida ties, Northwestern sophomore midfielder Christy Turner attended Timber Creek High School in Orlando. The Jacksonville University men's team will take on Notre Dame in a Friday evening scrimmage, following last year's Jacksonville women's team's 12-10 defeat at the hands of the U.S. women's U19 team. Notre Dame sophomore defenseman Michael Shephardson (Winter Park, Fla.) attended Saint Andrew's School in Boca Raton, where Powell currently coaches.

Quick Sticks

This is the third consecutive year that ESPNU will broadcast games from the Champion Challenge...US Lacrosse will be back at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex in July for the fourth annual US Lacrosse U15 National Championships and the Champion All American Showcases, which pit the top high school players from around the country against each other...Three members of the 2006 U.S. men's senior team will compete, including Casey Powell, Doug Shanahan and Matt Striebel...there is just one non-Division I player competing for Team USA — Stephen Berger (Washington College)...11 of the 38 players on the U.S. women's team are currently in college, including five juniors — Casey Ancarrow (James Madison), Danielle Etrasco (Boston University), Katie Schwarzmann (Maryland), Taylor Thornton (Northwestern), and Michelle Tumolo (Syracuse)…Three pairs of siblings will compete for Team USA this weekend – Stephen and Kelly Berger, Kevin and Mike Leveille and Lauren and Katie Schwarzmann…After the event, the U.S. women's team will trim its 38-player roster down to 24 in preparation for the 2013 FIL World Championship in Canada.
