

September 23, 2004

Dear Coach,

The process to select the coaches for the 2006 US Men's Team is underway. Ultimately, an eight person committee will select the coaches who will lead the 2006 US Men's team as it defends its World Championship in Ontario, Canada in July of 2006. The selection committee will be comprised of the following eight representatives:

- 1.) 2006 US Men's Team Coach Selection Committee Chair
- 2.) 2006 US Men's Team General Manager
- 3.) US Lacrosse Men's Division International Committee Chairman
- 4.) 2002 US Men's Team Head Coach
- 5.) US Lacrosse Men's Division Coaches Council President
- 6.) US Lacrosse Men's Division Coaches Council At-Large Representative
- 7.) US Club Lacrosse Association Representative
- 8.) US Lacrosse Men's Division Director

Please note the following guidelines:

- I. Coaches are only eligible to be selected as a national team coach one time.
- II. The selection committee will select the head coach each year thus; a rotation system will not be used.
- III. Four coaches will be selected to coach the team. One will be selected from NCAA Division I, II, III, Junior College and Intercollegiate Associates. One will be selected from Post-College Club. The other two "At-Large" coaches will be selected from any of the aforementioned constituencies.

The head coach for the 2006 US Men's Team will be selected by November of 2004. Assistant coaches will be selected by January 2005 and announced at the 2005 US Lacrosse National Convention.

Please fill out the attached form to apply to coach the US Men's Team in 2006, and return it to me no later than Friday, October 1, 2004.

Thank you,

David J. Urick
